

PRINCIPAL

The quiet discipline of Mr. Strand, principal of Bothell High School, has made him not only a most respected individual, but an efficient administrator aware of the problems of students and faculty alike.

In his daily supervision of high school life, he relies on good judgment and a sense of fairness to help him promote a cordial atmosphere between teachers and students. His interest in school life and student advancement is a virtue on which Mr. Strand has based every action toward his goal of school perfection. He is also active in community affairs, thus keeping a close contact with the citizens and parents of Bothell.

VICE PRINCIPAL

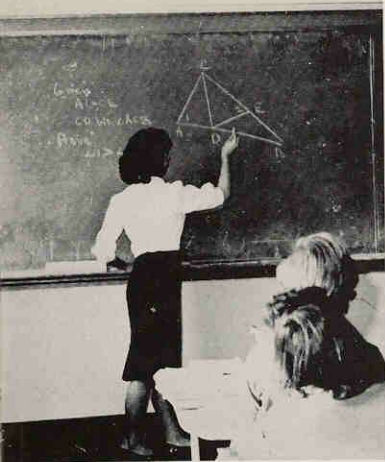

With an almost uncanny ability to see through alibis and excuses and with a ready humor for any situation, Mr. Siverson is a combination of brisk efficiency and initiative. Versatility is one of his characteristics. Whether working with the curricular and extra-curricular activities of this school or bringing favorable opinion through public service, he accomplishes his duties in a warm, personal manner. In a position where congeniality and understanding are mandatory, he excels. During each day he faces problems that would tax the most patient soul.

*Best works to Dave
Who has made an excellent contribution to our school*

Best of Luck to Dave C. Siverson

FACULTY

MRS. CULPEPPER

Geometry
Algebra III and Trig

Geometry students learn to reason when they have to explain a theorem on the blackboard, just as this girl is doing.

MR. PETERSON

Geometry
Math Analysis
Algebra III and Trig

The only way that we students will be able to understand the problems of advanced math is to have Mr. Peterson illustrate three or four or five or six examples.

Mr. Peterson

Mrs. Culpepper

Mr. Bond

MR. BOND

Algebra III and Trig
Geometry
Math Analysis
Photography

When not at the blackboard, Mr. Bond may often be found third period using the overhead projector with the combined geometry class of 72 students.

FACULTY

MRS. MARTA
U. S. History
World History

U. S. History is the required subject of all Juniors. Group discussions make it more interesting, but there are always book reports, term papers and tests.

Mrs. Marta

MR. McKINNON
World History
Advanced Biology

Lectures and class participation are necessary in any history course. Here we see one of Mr. McKinnon's World History classes.

Mr. McKinnon

MR. TALBUT
U. S. History
Contemporary Affairs

U. S. History is not only useful in understanding the origin of our country, but here it looks like it can be quite enjoyable.

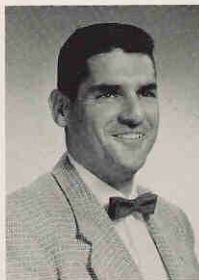

Mr. Talbut

MR. RICE
Mechanical Drawing
Algebra I

Mechanical drawing, an important prerequisite to engineering or architecture, is ably supervised by Mr. Rice.

Mr. Rice

Mr. Wick

MR. WICK
Wood Shop
Architectural Drawing

The importance of accurate measurement of all parts of a project can't be stressed enough. That is why wood shop students must know their tools perfectly.

MR. MCGUIRE
World History
Physical Education

Maps are an essential tool in lectures on world history, a requirement for all Sophomores.

Mr. McGuire

FACULTY

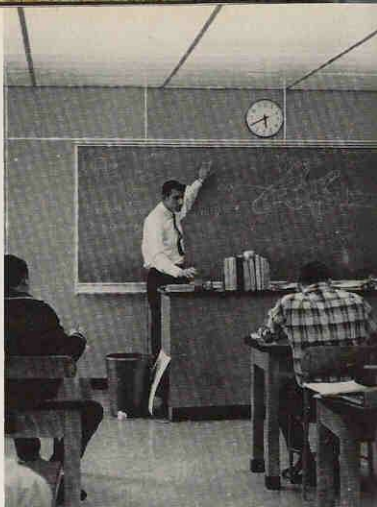

MR. SCHMIDT

Biology
Botany

Besides teaching Biology, Mr. Schmidt teaches Botany which looks quite interesting from the diagrams on either side of the blackboard.

Mr. Schmidt

MR. COLASURDO

Biology

Here Mr. Colasurdo can be seen explaining some of the illustrations on the blackboard.

Mr. Colasurdo

MRS. MOHN

English II
World History

Themes are an important part of an English course. Students find it necessary to check over written papers as we see here.

Mrs. Mohn

FACULTY

MR. GAY
 English II
 English IV
 Paper Staff
 Journalism
 Annual Staff
 Photography

Mr. Gay has to worry for both the paper and annual staff when deadline dates roll around.

Mr. Gay

Miss Stickney

MISS HARTLEY
 English II
 Speech

Miss Hartley

A basic course in literature and lots and lots of grammar make up a year of Sophomore English—the foundation of future English classes.

MISS STICKNEY
 English III

The Junior English classes go on to writing compositions and increasing their vocabulary in addition to reviewing grammar and doing a little more literature.

FACULTY

MRS. CARLSON

Senior Counselor
Retail Selling
English II

Mrs. Carlson is busiest during the second semester when Seniors must check their credits, get transcripts for colleges, and sign their names for diplomas.

Mrs. Carlson

DR. JAVOR

French I
French II
German I
German II
Russian I

It takes skill to be able to speak a different language every period, but Dr. Javor manages to accomplish this feat well.

Dr. Javor

MRS. SCHELL

Spanish I
Spanish II

The only way to learn Spanish, or any other language, is to practice using it conversationally.

Mrs. Schell

FACULTY

MRS. HEWITT

English II
English III
Drama

Two successful all-school plays were produced under the direction of Mrs. Hewitt, and this she did in addition to teaching her regular classes and advising Thespians.

Mrs. Hewitt

MISS EYLAR

Seminar in Social Studies
Contemporary Affairs
Political Philosophy

This year, Miss Eylar's classes not only visited the state courts, but also had the opportunity to go to Olympia to observe the state legislature in session.

Miss Eylar

David
I'm sure you will be successful at school. I will hope to hear from you next year provided you have time to notify me of your academic accomplishments.
Sincerely,
Miss M. Eylar

Miss McCann

MISS McCANN

Office Practice
Typing II

Typing is not only useful during a student's high school and college days, but comes in handy in any type of business work.

FACULTY

MRS. KIRTON
Attendance Clerk
Counselors' Secretary

With the help of a student staff, Mrs. Kirton supervises all phases of enrolling students, recording absences, telephoning parents, keeping permanent report cards, and making student appointments with the counselors.

Mrs. Kirton

MR. JARDINE
Head Custodian

"George" is the man behind the scenes. In building maintenance, he must keep the school heated and clean. Many don't realize that he has about the hardest job in the city.

Mr. Jardine

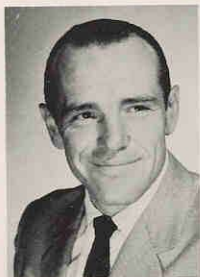

Miss Rose can be found in the high school nurse's office on Mondays and Wednesdays; at other times, she is at the Junior High School. But either way, she is prepared for anything—be it a broken bone or a hangnail. She also helps administer hearing and eye tests. In general, Miss Rose is always present in an authoritative capacity to promote the health of the students.

MISS ROSE
School Nurse

MR. SULLIVAN
World History
Physical Education

Besides teaching two subjects, Mr. Sullivan started this year's gymnastic team that performed at home basketball games and participated in gymnastic meets.

Mr. Sullivan

MR. BLOOM
Chemistry

Mr. Bloom keeps busy teaching five chemistry classes a day. You'll find most of the college-bound students in these classes.

Mr. Bloom

Mr. Derksen

MR. DERKSEN
Physics
Natural Science

Physics is the science dealing with matter and motion and involves no change in chemical composition. The effects of certain actions are best seen in experiments.

FACULTY

MRS. ENSIGN
Assistant Secretary

As the assistant secretary, Mrs. Ensign can officiate in almost all phases of the office work. Typing up tests, supervising the requisition of supplies, and operating the telephone switchboard are but a few of her duties.

Mrs. Ensign

MISS MENGON
Shorthand
Bookkeeping
ASB Treasurer Advisor

Mrs. Mengon ably instructs prospective secretaries and business women in the skills that are so important. She also is the official bookkeeper of student body funds.

Miss Mengon

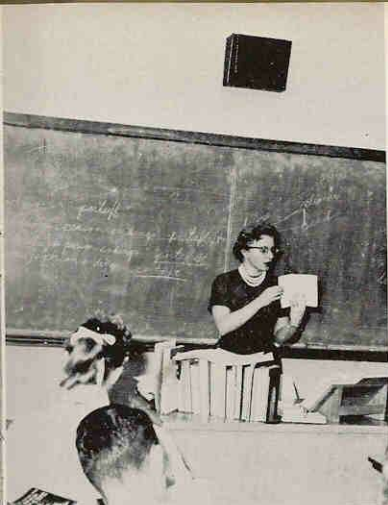

Mrs. Sherrard

MRS. SHERRARD
Home Economics

Mrs. Sherrard not only teaches girls the fundamentals of homemaking, but also discusses social and marital problems with them in preparation for life after high school.

FACULTY

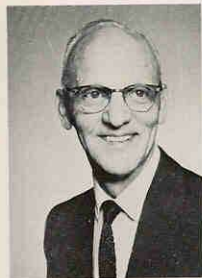

MRS. SAHR

Latin I
Latin II
English II

Latin may be known as the dead language, but this year's Latin Club is found to be quite active under the advisorship of Mrs. Sahr.

Mrs. Sahr

Mr. Perry

MR. PERRY

Developmental Reading

All students were given a quarter of developmental reading to increase speed and comprehension. An efficient way of studying was also taught to improve the study habits of the students.

MR. FICHTENAU

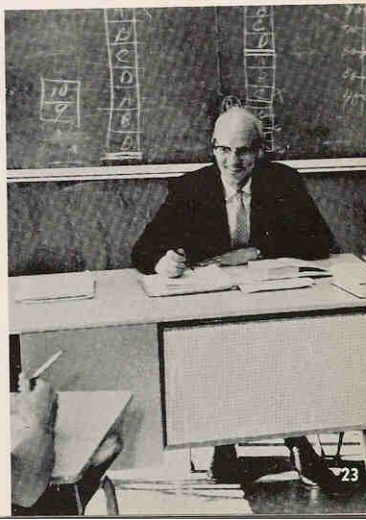

Creative Writing
English IV

In addition to his regular classes, Mr. Fichtenau supervises the new book store.

Mr. Fichtenau

*The friendly
Foggy Fichtenau*

FACULTY

MR. McNUTT

Spanish
Counseling

Mr. McNutt is in charge of all scholarship information and he is kept busy reminding Seniors of registration fees and deadlines for taking Scholarship aptitude tests, Grade Prediction Tests, and other exams necessary for college entrance.

Mr. McNutt

Friends Rowens - etc - etc

MR. KIDDER

Practical Math
Sophomore Counselor

Helping the Sophomores to arrange their schedules for their future years in high school certainly occupies Mr. Kidder's time.

Mr. Kidder

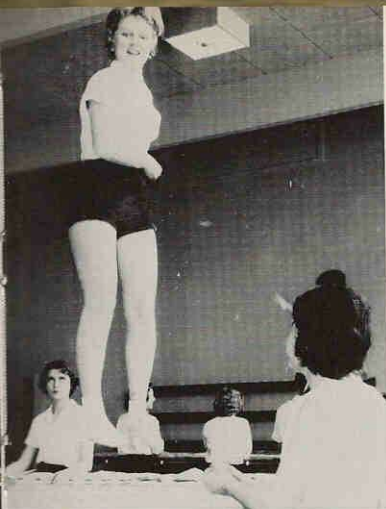

MRS. CURTIS

Typing I
Junior Counselor

Mrs. Curtis is kept busy helping students decide what classes to take in preparation for graduation or college.

Mrs. Curtis

MISS BOHNEN

Physical Education

The trampoline is part of the program to keep the high school girl physically fit. At least eight spotters are used for safety precautions.

MR. IMUS

Art
Crafts
Advanced Art

All scenery for the music programs is done by Mr. Imus' art classes. A hallway covered with half painted slats is a sure sign of a coming production.

Mr. Imus

Miss Bohnen

Mrs. Kieffer

MRS. KIEFFER

Dietician

What would we do without hot lunches! This year the cooks had the advantage of new kitchen facilities and the new cafeterium to prepare Mrs. Kieffer's well-planned meals.

FACULTY

MRS. BOTTING

Secretary

Mrs. Botting is not only a secretary to Mr. Strand, but also the office manager. She files, operates all office machines, distributes the mail, handles all funds, and is in charge of the calendars and bulletins.

Mrs. Botting

MR. EIDE

Contemporary Affairs
Historical Analysis
Debate

Russian history and a knowledge of our American Democracy are essential to a year of contemporary—a requirement of all Seniors.

Mr. Eide

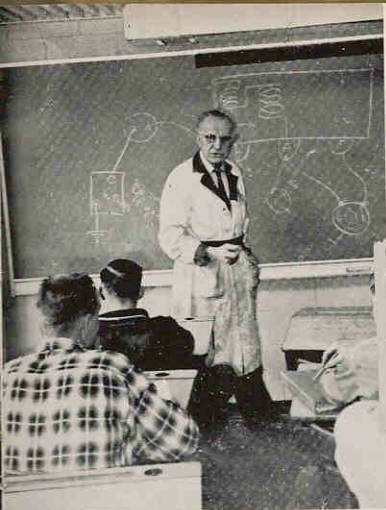

MR. WORTHY

Hearing and Speech
Therapist

As District Speech Therapist, Mr. Worthy makes scheduled classes to administer hearing tests and to help those students with speech impediments.

Mr. Worthy

MR. SCHUBACH

Auto Shop
Advanced Auto Shop

For boys going into auto mechanics, or any other related field, auto shop is a three-period class. This enables them to continue any work without a class change every 50 minutes.

Mr. Schubach

MR. GREEN

Driver's Training

Statistics have shown that students with the benefit of a drivers' training program in high school have had a lower accident rate as compared to those without instruction.

Mr. Green

Mr. Christopher

MR. CHRISTOPHER

Library

Mr. Christopher, the new librarian, has not only enlarged the student library staff for more efficiency, but he has also added more periodical and book supplies for the students' use.

FACULTY

MR. ACKERMAN

Choir
Band
Cadet Band

Mr. Ackerman is kept busy all year since the band and choir give three big concerts. He also arranges half-time band shows for the home football games. Both the band and choir enter contests, festivals, and perform for other groups. Among all this activity, the musicians of Bothell High learn basic music theory under Mr. Ackerman's instruction.

Mr. Ackerman

Mr. Behrens

MR. BEHRENS

Music Theory
Vocal Ensemble
Chorus

Music Theory is the newest class and is available for those students who plan to major in music. The chorus is the largest in Bothell's history, but still produces wonderful songs. Under the co-supervision of Mr. Ackerman and Mr. Behrens, the music department is a very popular place.

